DETAILED ACTION

Status of Claims

1. Status of Claims: Claims 1-18 are pending.
2. The Request for Continued Examination is noted.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 1, 2, 6-8, 12-15, 17, and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kumar (5512131) in view of Miwa (4897228).

Kumar teaches a template 46 and supporting plate 54 (glass slide therefore transparent) that are brought in to imprint upon a substrate. Kumar teaches Kumar fails to teach a body with an opening for receiving the template.

Miwa teaches a body 3 (ring) that has an opening that accommodates for a template 2 to be held that is used to imprint upon s material 5.

In regards to the nanolithography template, Kumar teaches a stamper for microstamped patterns on a structure, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to envision the use of the stamper for smaller scale as it is merely a change in size.

It would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art to modify Kumar with the body taught by Miwa for holding the template in position for operation.

7. Claims 3-5, 9-11, and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kumar in view of Miwa as applied to claims 1, 2, 6-8, 12-15, 17, and 18 above, and further in view of Ledger (5515167) and Semiconductor Memories (see IDS).

Kumar in view of Miwa fails to teach vacuum chucks and silicon dioxide.

Ledger teaches the use of vacuum chucks that are transparent (Col. 3, lines 11-23).

Semiconductor Memories teaches the use of Silicon Dioxide as backing support for the silicon wafer (see page 91).

It would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art to modify Kumar in view of Miwa with vacuum chucks as taught by Ledger for aiding in holding the template in position and the use silicon dioxide as taught by Semiconductor Memories since it is a known transparent material used in the arts that allows for materials to cure.
